Chair Congratulates new Board members to RDACW

Picture Left to Right - Cr Des Manwaring, Mayor of Lachlan Shire Council, watching the Chair of RDACW, Mr Alan McCormack and Cr Bill West, Chair of Centroc and Mayor of Cowra Shire Council, sign a MOU in May.

Chair of Centroc Cr Bill West congratulates the new board members announced for RDACW Regional Development Australia Central West. He also acknowledges the wonderful work of the previous Board members.

“RDACW and Centroc have had a long relationship of working collaboratively and we are proud to have signed an MoU with them that outlines our ongoing activities,” said Cr Bill West Chair of Centroc.

“Chair Alan McCormack and his Deputy Chair Reg Kidd are very well know identities in Central NSW and have the region’s best at heart. The new Board is well represented across our region and should continue to work very well on building the economy.” said Cr West.

“RDACW and Centroc have been working collaboratively on 6 Infrastructure Priorities for our Region. Our work is getting a great response from State and Federal Government.” said Cr West.

The Centroc Board look forward to continuing the positive working relationship with RDACW and welcome the new Committee and wish them well with their new roles.
